

I value my privacy. If I want to talk to a bank I will choose when and where I will do so. I don't need them calling me. I don't deal with a bank I use a credit union because they are locally owned and not an out of state business. I was so happy when we could stop telemarketing and to me this is just another name for it.